1. on 30 April and on 1 May 1953 an act of sabotage was carried out in the city of Yambol. The granary in that city, the third largest granary in Bulgaria was set afire and blown up. At 2:00 or 3:00 p.m. on 1 May 1953, the workers were dismissed. About 3:00 a.m. on 1 May 1953, the granary was set on fire and not longer after that the granary exploded as if in all probability its walls had been lined with explosives. At the time of the act of sabotage, there were approximately 50 tons of wheat in the granary.
2. Immediately after the fire broke out in the Yambol granary, the director of the granary together with five other workers (names unknown) disappeared from the city. No report was heard of their capture.
